President's Letter

Howdy Aggie Moms! Welcome new and returning Aggie Moms!

The mission of all Aggie Moms clubs is “by individual and united effort to contribute in every way to the comfort and welfare of the students and to cooperate with Texas A&M University in maintaining a high standard of moral conduct and intellectual attainment”.

We fulfill our mission by raising money for scholarships for Ft. Bend County A&M students at the College Station and Galveston campuses and by donating to A&M student organizations. Details of our successful 2018 - 2019 fundraising year are included in this newsletter.

We kicked off our 2019 - 2020 year with our traditional Howdy Party! on August 12th. It was a huge success. This meeting welcomed new moms, dads, aunts, uncles, students and friends of current and former students of Texas A&M University. We welcomed many new and returning Aggie Moms to our club.

At this meeting, we were treated by a special presentation by Colonel Michael E. Fossum. He is the COO and VP of TAMU Galveston. His stories of space walks and shuttle missions awed and inspired us. He reminded us that TAMUG is a growing part of the land-, sea-, and space-grant institution that is Texas A&M University.

We were also thrilled when Grant Lincecum '18, former TAMUG Yell Leader, volunteered to lead us in some popular yells.

Going forward, we will continue to educate our Aggie Moms on all things Aggie at our upcoming monthly membership meetings. Every program is a look at the many aspects of Texas A&M University.

Our monthly meetings and member socials are a great way to learn about Texas A&M University, meet other Aggie Moms, share experiences, make new friends, and support our Aggie students.

Welcome and Gig' em.

Carol A. Gaas '85, President

Ft Bend Aggie Mom's Club has an Outstanding year

This the Ft. Bend Aggie Moms Club Annual Report that is presented to the Federation of Aggie Moms in May of each year to memorialize the accomplishments of each local Aggie Mom club.

2018 – 2019 AGGIE MOMS' CLUB ANNUAL REPORT

Number of Members: 129 The Ft Bend Aggie Moms' Club had an outstanding 2018-2019 year. We were 129 members strong due to the joint efforts of the Federation at the New Student Conferences and our local Membership Committee (Sandy Kelly and Angela Harris).

Memorable Programs: Galveston Yell Leaders, Fish Camp, Aggie Guide and Service Dogs, The Traditions Council, CARPOOL, How to Pay for College with Scholarships & Grants (Karin Mayfield-Personal Touch Scholarships), Glenn Dresner '69 An Old Ag' with a Passion, Craft and Game Night- Left, Right, Center

Special Events: Braman Winery Pre-Game Tailgate, Christmas Holiday Dinner with Ornament Exchange, Multiple Craft Nights hosted by Aggie Mom-Krista Smith

Our Howdy Homecoming 50th Anniversary Reunion held on Saturday, November 3rd, was an outstanding success! Current and former members of our Ft. Bend club attended the event.

The Federation President, Peggy Nolen, surprised us with a special Proclamation from the Federation of Texas A&M University Mothers' Clubs. Our special guest speaker, Glenn Dresner '69, moved us all with his story of his own Aggie Mom and the influence that Texas A&M has had on his entire adult life. Ms. Peggy Armbruster was crowned Homecoming Queen, and she and her Princess court all wore specially designed homecoming "Mums" made by our Aggie Moms.

Community Outreach: Service to our Servicemen and Servicewomen!

For the first time in a long while, we had an Aggie Mom, Stephanie Ramrath's (former FBAM President), Aggie son was deployed with the U.S. Army overseas. Four other fellow Aggies were in the same Army unit. We began collecting donations for these Aggie servicemen in September and continued in October.

Ft. Bend Aggies Moms were host families for the Singing Cadets prior to their performance at a local church.

Celebrating Little Victories Along the Way:

Many of our Aggie Moms stepped out of their comfort zone by volunteering on committees, attending socials, stuffing goodie bags, crafting items at craft nights, selling poinsettias, Aggie road signs, raffle tickets, and volunteering at our Boutique tables during Family Weekend.

At each board and general meeting, we celebrated little victories as our fundraising efforts began to show results in our bottom line.

A New Endowed Scholarship

Ft. Bend Aggie Moms lost beloved Aggie Mom, Linda Casey, unexpectedly in August 2018.

Her Ft. Bend Aggie family and friends will honor her memory and service to our club with a new endowed scholarship- The Ft. Bend County Linda Casey Memorial Southerland Aggie Leader Scholarship.

A Year of Giving

To say we had an outstanding year is an understatement. Our goals for fundraising were met and exceeded in some cases. Here is a snapshot of our 2019 financial contributions to Texas A&M University:

Benevolent Fund Donations	$ 275 (Sterling C. Evans Library Endowment)
Student Organizations (12)	3,300
Student Scholarships (17)	18,000
Linda Casey Endowed Scholarship	6,000
Linda Casey Endowed Scholarship	5,000 (Raffle proceeds donated back to club for endowed scholarship)
	$ 32,570

The magic continued when our 2019 Be Our Guest Raffle winner generously donated the value of the winning raffle prize back to the club towards the Linda Casey Endowed Scholarship! The $5,000 trip value will be added to the $6,000 club endowment donation. Our $25,000 endowed scholarship will be funded that much sooner thanks to our winner's generous gift.

At our final May Scholarship Awards and Senior Recognition celebration, we awarded 17 student scholarships and gifted 26 graduating seniors with Aggie ring crest paperweights. Aggie Moms chose 12 deserving student organizations to receive donations. Our first fully funded endowed scholarship, named for our founding member, Patsy Armbruster, will soon be awarded to another deserving Ft. Bend County student.

Ft. Bend Aggie Moms left the May 2019 meeting feeling a multitude of emotions-proud, happy, honored, humbled, and relieved.

Successful Fundraisers:

Each of our fundraisers contributed to our scholarship fund.

- Poinsettias – Aggie Moms sold lovely poinsettias for the Christmas holiday season to friends and local businesses.
- Raffle – Grand Prize trip for 2 to the vacation of the Winner's choice. Four vacations options were featured.
- Boutique & Aggie Signs (www.aggiesigns.org) – Aggie Moms make or buy Aggie-themed merchandise for sale at local general meetings and Family Weekend.
- Christmas Holiday Silent Auction– Aggie Moms donated items for a Silent Auction. One of the most popular items was a "Wine & Spirits Tree" where multiple bottles of wine and spirits were donated/auctioned by Aggie Moms attending the party.
- Aggie Bags- Aggie students received goodies from Aggie Moms in the Fall and Spring Semesters.
- DECA judging – Aggie Moms judged Fort Bend DECA student presentations.
- Yankee Candles – a % of online purchases were designated for Ft Bend Aggie Moms Club
- Benevolent Fund Donations (not a fundraiser) – Aggie Moms donated loose change throughout the year towards the Benevolent Fund which is designated to honor deceased loved ones through donations to the Sterling C. Evans Library Endowment.

This year's raffle was called "Be Our Guest". It featured four possible Grand Prize vacation packages created by Winspire, a company that assists in fundraising for non-profits by offering unique vacation experiences. The tickets were $20 each. Only one winning ticket would be chosen for the Grand Prize vacation package. That winner could choose among the four vacation packages.

We offered multiple opportunities for Aggies to purchase Aggie Farm and Road signs at a discount prices prior to December graduation/Christmas holidays and May graduation/Family Weekend. These pre-sale savings opportunities were 'advertised' on Facebook prior to each event. Customers who ordered pre-sale signs for pickup at Family Weekend saved on shipping and sales taxes. This strategy proved to be very successful! Our online sign store at www.aggiesigns.org continues to grow in popularity.

Donations to A&M:

In April of each year, we ask our membership to nominate student organizations to receive donations from the Ft. Bend Aggie Moms' Club. Twelve (12) A&M Organizations were designated to receive donations totaling $3,300. Each of these organizations received a $275 donation from the Ft. Bend Aggie Mom's Club.

We try to choose a variety of organizations from year to year. Oftentimes, if an organization has presented a program, we will include them. Or, if a Mom has a student in the organization, they can recommend them to us. We try to add new organizations each year.

1. Freshman Exemplifying Aggie Spirit Together
2. The 12th Can
3. Student Association of Maritime Administrators (SAMA)
4. Maggies
5. Traditions Council – Silver Taps Committee
6. Galveston Yell Leaders
7. HardChord Dynamix
8. Parsons Mounted Calvary
9. Carpool
10. American Medical Student Association (AMSA)
11. Corps of Cadets B-1
12. Professional Association of Industrial Distribution (PAID)

Benevolent Fund Giving

Aggie Moms support one another in many ways. During each General Meeting, a pink ceramic pig is passed around for donations of loose change for the Benevolent Fund. The proceeds from the fund are donated yearly to the Sterling C. Evans library endowment in memory of Aggie Moms and loved ones who have passed away in the calendar year. This year we have $275 in donations that will be designated as Benevolent donations.

Scholarships and Giving:

Seventeen (17) Ft. Bend County Aggie students will receive scholarships for the 2019 -2020 academic school year. The scholarships totaled $18,000. Twenty-six (26) seniors were gifted Aggie ring crest paperweights with their graduating year. The endowed Patsy Armbruster Southerland Leader scholarship will soon be awarded to a deserving Aggie student.

"Apples"

A poem by Courtney Kiolbassa '18 explores how parents feel when children leave the nest.

when you visited me in college for the first time you convinced me that i wanted some groceries probably because we needed to spend time together probably because it was the least you could do to serve me in the short weekend we had to make up for all this time i'd been away.
i said, sure, i could really use some apples, and you jumped like you had done many times before at the chance to give me everything you could which meant that selecting seven apples became an extravagant reviewing process of picking the perfect fruit for your daughter to tell her how much you missed her.

*This one has a bruise, and also,
I wish I could make dinner for you after school.
Do you see? It's not as red as it could be.
Do you see? I'm even missing your dirty laundry.*

dad, i wish i had the courage to tell you that the way you seized every apple spun it around stared at it with inquisitive eyes squeezed it between questioning fingers told me more about your love than the words you didn't say.

BEHIND THE POEM

Courtney Kiolbassa '18 wrote the poem "Apples" when she was a sophomore in college after her parents came to visit her for the weekend. Her mother immediately gathered up her dirty laundry, while her dad hopped in the car to buy her groceries. "I realized all the small ways my incredible parents showed their love for me, even though I sometimes forgot to call them or was too busy to drive home," said Kiolbassa. "I started to see that love looks different for each person."

The Things Moms Do

Who among us has not bought that ridiculously small dorm refrigerator hoping it will stave off starvation on the campus meal plan

Or, hauled countless black trash bags up and up the steps to the freshman dorm room filled with What?
Very Important Stuff

Or, spent a fortune on plastic storage drawers for all those t-shirts that won't fit in the dorm closet

Or, counseled them on the wisdom of separating whites and colors even though you know that it just Won't Happen

Or, taken them out for breakfast, lunch,
and/or dinner to extend the time that you have together before that final, cheery (teary)
'Bye Mom!'
